

ADMIRALS of the FLAGSHIP FLEET

June 15, 1964

Mr. H. A. Wells
Bell Telephone Laboratory
Whippany, New Jersey

Dear Mr. Wells:

It is a genuine pleasure to welcome you as an Admiral of the Flagship Fleet, and to extend to you the full privilege of that rank.

You can take pride in knowing you were commissioned in recognition of your special interest in air transportation. As an Admiral, you will always be welcomed in the club rooms at the airports listed in your House Rules Booklet.

We will be delighted to have your wife as a guest at any time. To obtain a Courtesy Card for her, all you need do is fill out and sign the enclosed form. Then return it to us.

It is my sincere wish that your commission will add greatly to your flying pleasure and comfort. Also, that the new friends that you make among other Admirals will be enjoyable and lasting.

Please remember you are part of the "family" now. So feel free to send me any suggestions that would improve the high standards of our service to millions of passengers each year.

Cordially,

C. R. Smith
Fleet Admiral

*For American Airlines Admirals:
A Place to Call Your Own
at the New York World's Fair*

In the Astrojet Lounge, there is a desk staffed with friendly Admirals Club Skippers who will be happy to help you make reservations, take your phone calls, perform any of the services to which you're accustomed at other Admirals Clubs. The lounge will be open seven days a week — 10:00 am to 2:00 am the following morning.

The room is charmingly decorated in the manner of old Spain. Warm, sunny colors, soft lighting from graceful chandeliers, comfortable chairs grouped around tables for four, all create a gracious atmosphere to which you can proudly bring your guests.

The lounge features the same beverage service you enjoy in other Admirals Clubs and a wide selection of delicious hors d'oeuvres. This is an ideal spot to entertain before dinner and going on to other delights of the Fair. These facilities are here for your enjoyment . . . come in and enjoy them often.

You're Cordially Invited to Visit the "Astrojet Lounge" in the Heart of the World's Fair

To make your visit to the World's Fair more enjoyable, American Airlines has established the Astrojet Lounge in the Music Hall at the Texas Pavilion. This lounge is for you and your guests. Here you will find all the comforts and conveniences of an Admirals Club.

The Astrojet Lounge is an oasis of quiet and refreshment, so, if you become tired of walking, come in and rest. Too much seeing and doing? Come in and refresh yourself. These rooms will add to your enjoyment, your comfort and relaxation while at the Fair.

The Astrojet Lounge is in the Music Hall, strategically located in the Lake Amusement area at the entrance to the parking lot. (See map on back cover.) There's even a special entrance. It is immediately to the right of the main entrance to the Music Hall. Show your Admirals Club card to the attendant. Then take the private elevator to the lounge on the second floor. You'll see the familiar Admirals Club seal on the door.
