WALT DISNEY WORLD VACATION KINGDOM ... the bigger picture is a great deal more than just the 2,500 acres devoted to the Magic Kingdom and its many theme areas. It's a total resort environment, a 27,000 acre world of complete vacationing, with three golf courses, lakes and water sports, tennis courts, nature and riding trails.

There's even a complete town with shops and services of all kinds, including top flight entertainment ... even a hospital and a fire department. And it's called the WALT DISNEY WORLD Resort Community of Lake Buena Vista.

But it's when you come back to the lobby, after settling in, that you realize you're truly in a leisure world. There's a famous Howard Johnson's Restaurant complete with a gazebo style salad bar, and all the food favorites of three generations of American travelers.

Cocktails at the intimate Aquarium Lounge, with views of the atrium garden and swimming pools, will be a perfect ending to an exciting day.
